

Eric MacCluen Golf has a New Home!

Eric MacCluen is pleased to announce that he has been named the new Director of Golf Instruction at Applecross Country Club in Downingtown, PA.

Our new home for golf instruction features the ONLY Nicklaus designed Championship golf course in the area, oversized bent-grass practice tee, 20,000 sq ft. practice green, a unique par 3 19th hole, a dedicated wedge area, and swimming and fitness amenities second to none. Applecross is a private Club, yet because of our unique relationship, our students will be able to continue to receive private and group instruction. Along with the Applecross team, I am excited to be taking these first steps towards becoming the premier private facility for golf instruction in the area.
