

2021 Golf Season: Fall Clinic Series

Combined Beginner & Intermediate Levels - COED
Class Size ~6:1 Student / Instructor Ratio

Group clinics are a great way to learn to play golf, keep up with your game and have fun too. We have designed our clinic series for the beginner golfer as well as the intermediate player who wants to improve their swing mechanics this golf season. By working on the most important parts of the swing, it can improve how well you contact the ball and how consistent you are when you play. Let us show you how... you will hit the ball better, farther, and more consistently and ultimately have more fun when you get out on the course!
